

Tucson Electric Power
Commercial Energy Solutions Program

The rebates are offered to reduce the initial cost of purchasing more-efficient equipment including lighting, HVAC, motors and compressors. To maximize use of the utility rebate program, it is important that a bid specification is in line with the utility company's specifications requirement. It is also important that the contractors install the equipment as per the specifications.

You can find more information on the TEP Commercial Energy Solutions Program at:

<http://www.tucsonelectric.com/Green/Business/CommercialSolutions/Applications.asp>